INDUCTION DINNER 2006

The Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame and Museum

Guests at the 2006 Induction Dinner will be in the company of the following Saskatchewan personalities who are being honoured for their contribution to sport.

Athletes:

Roger Aldag – Football
Fran Huck – Hockey
"Jungle" Jim Hunter – Alpine Skiing
Catriona LeMay Doan, O.C. – Speed Skating

Builders:

George Goff – Boxing
Dave King, C.M. – Hockey
Claude Seguin – Fencing
Murray Swayze – Basketball

Teams:

1993 Regina Rams – Football
1998 Gary Bryden Team – Curling

The Hall of Fame Dinner

The Induction Dinner and its associated events are the major annual fund development projects for the Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame and Museum. In 2005, over $30,000 was raised through the Induction Dinner and Golf Tournament. All of the money raised goes directly towards offsetting the costs of collecting, preserving and interpreting Saskatchewan's sport history.

Hotel Accommodations

The Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame and Museum is pleased to have the Ramada Hotel & Convention Centre as the host hotel for the 40th Annual Induction Dinner. Located downtown at 1818 Victoria Avenue, the Ramada is offering two accommodation options.

- * Room only – $86.00 (single/double occupancy plus taxes)/per night
- * Package offer – $96.00 (single/double occupancy plus taxes)/per night – includes full hot buffet breakfast and secured, climate controlled underground parking.

We are pleased to announce extensive renovations in 2006.

To make reservations call: 1-800-667-6500 (prompt 2) or (306) 569-1666. Reservations can also be made via e-mail at regina@saskramada.com.

When calling the Ramada please indicate that you are attending the Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame Induction Dinner and would like the preferred rate.
